

Enjoy great food and drinks as well as get entertained at the Lucky Clover, an Irish pub, Brickell

The Lucky Clover, Irish Pub Brickell has, opened itself to the Miami residents on December 5. It occupies two levels at the Axis on Brickell building, conveniently located right across the street from the Brickell Metrorail Station. It encompasses 10,000 sq ft, with seating for 3350 indoors and out, and three most spacious sports bars Miami, Florida has ever had. With its traditional wooden façade that evokes the rustic pubs of Ireland, there's nothing typical about the Lucky Clover with amazing décor that channels Dublin's finest watering-holes and the comprehensive, reasonably priced menu that goes far beyond the usual fare of fish n' chips and burgers in the other restaurant Brickell has. In addition to great grub, a weekday happy hour and live nightly entertainment that will run the gamut from local cover bands to the occasional national and international act, the Lucky Clover Irish Pub brings downtown a lively new destination for dining, drinking and socializing.

Lunch and dinner will be served daily, with continuous service from noon to midnight. The comprehensive menu offers all of the beloved comfort dishes familiar to pub habitués and much more. For those who live and work in downtown Miami, there's no better spot to grab a quick sandwich on lunch break or to empty a leisurely afternoon meal. The wide array of reasonably priced selections includes sandwiches, salads, pizzas, pastas and hearty main courses. Starters include food such as lucky sliders, chicken quesadillas, smoked salmon platter, crispy calamari rings and many more. Pastas and pizzas are perfectly at home on this menu. All the pasta and pizzas are made to order in-house with fresh ingredients. Diners can also enjoy specialty creations including the Greek, the Clover, the clover wrap and lucky clover burger. Main platter in Irish pub Brickell include classics like corned beef platter, lucky fish & chips and grilled marinated Atlantic salmon.

But man cannot live by food alone. The Lucky Clover restaurant Brickell has libations aplenty at three spacious sports bar Miami Florida with a wide selection of microbrews, domestic and imported bottles and ten beers on tap. Best of English and Irish brews along with a full slate of martinis and creative drinks are available and so is a nice selection of whiskeys, bourbons and single malt scotches are also available.

The Lucky Clover, Irish pub Brickell is also the ideal venue to watch sporting events and enjoy the live music with multiple flat screen TVs and a large screen HD TV, top of the line sound and lighting systems and permanent stage. An entertainment schedule, in development, promises live music nightly, with musical acts ranging from reggae to salsa and everything in between.

We welcome guests with our lively yet cozy vibe from the rustic, scuffed floors to antique fixtures, reclaimed signage and gently distressed leather club chairs designed by Retromania.
